The first is An Evil Mind, and its direct sequel is Hunting Evil, published in 2019. In this book, Lucien Folter, whom we first met in An Evil Mind, returns after being locked away in solitary confinement for almost four years. This was a long time for a person to stew and cook up ideas for revenge and vengeance against Robert Hunter.

I have some ambivalence about An Evil Mind. Suffice it to say that the title accurately portrays a serial killer's twisted cat-and-mouse game with the LAPD's Robert Hunter. A freak accident outside a diner in Wyoming reveals the shocking cargo in a patron's trunk: potential evidence of a serial killer.
