In The Heat Of Summer

In the Heat of the Summer is a thoroughly researched and lucid account of outbreaks of violence in 1964 in two New York neighborhoods (Harlem and Bed-Sty), the police and others present, and the social and political contexts: the Civil Rights Movement, LBJ's Civil Rights Act, his promised Great Society, his War on Crime, what had become his War in Viet-Nam, and his refusal to stand for election one more time.
